URJ Camp Harlam 2020 Registration Terms & Policies

Terms and Conditions Agreement:

The below Terms and Conditions are acknowledged and agreed to by and between the Union for Reform Judaism's (URJ) Camp Harlam and the undersigned parent or guardian (referred to herein as "parent", "guardian", "I" or "me") on behalf of Parent or Guardian's child (hereafter "Camper") and represent the expectations and agreements in order to be eligible for acceptance to Camp:

- Requirements for Acceptance to Session at Camp
- Deposit and Family's Payment Agreement
- Refund of Payment Policies
- Program Coverage
- Camper's Participation and Camp Program Expectations
- Parent/Guardian Authorizations
- Recording Release
- Indemnification

In the mutual interests of the Camp, the Camper, and for the well-being of all campers at the Camp, I understand that Camper must respect and observe the rules, regulations and policies of the Camp, which have been developed for the benefit of all campers including Camper to strengthen the Camp program and enhance the experience for all campers. In particular, as parent/guardian of Camper, I agree to the implementation and enforcement of the following rules, regulations and policies at Camp for the 2020 summer camping season, and which are part of this Agreement, and have reviewed these rules, regulations and policies with Camper:

Requirements for Acceptance to Session at Camp:

- I agree that Camper's acceptance into a session at Camp is not confirmed until explicit written verification is received from the Camp, which notice will usually come from Camp via email to the email address established by me in my application.
- I understand that this application is accepted subject to a physical examination of Camper by a physician and the completion (and timely submission) of all necessary forms (medical, Camper Info, etc.) in accordance with Camp policy.
- I understand that the URJ, its camping system, and the Camp consider Camp safety and public health matters of utmost importance. The vaccination of all members of the camp community ranks as a key component in maintaining a safe environment and in decreasing the risk of transmission of contagious illness. Accordingly, Camp and the URJ Camping system requires that any member of the camp community in residence receive up-to-date, age appropriate immunizations. The complete list of required immunizations and exemptions can be found on the camp's Health Forms.
- I agree to provide proof of medical insurance covering Camper prior to the beginning of the camp season. Medical insurance for Camper can be purchased for the period at Camp through the Camp insurance company. (Please contact your camp office for more information.)
